The Wisdom Exchange is a resource to inspire African women to learn, lead and succeed in life, business, and community. It is a forum where women of all disciplines will be inspired from the achievements of African women in business, education, philanthropy and politics. These are the women that are the Change Agents of African companies, communities, countries and continent. They will inspire us to stretch our vision of what we can do, and what WE can be. New interviews and Expert Perspective blogs will be updated regularly with the insights of the women leaders of today for tomorrow.

Wisdom Exchange tv's target markets are African women: in tertiary education, who are growing in their careers, or who are established in leading positions. Although African women are the targets, the exchange is being watched in 55 countries, 19 of which are African. The reach is wide and growing every month.
